

Ian Jenner

SENIOR FINANCIAL PLANNING ADVISOR

Ian has always had a passion for helping people achieve their personal and professional goals. His business acumen (and understanding of how one creates and keeps wealth in order to provide security) is driven by a Financial Planning process that emphasizes an extensive view of wealth creation for each family's unique set of requirements.

Over the past 24 years, Ian's experience in all matters relating to finance have assisted many in their quest for financial security.

In 1998, Ian joined with his friend and business partner Senior Financial Advisor Jamie Geisler, CFP® to form Jenner, Geisler & Associates. At the time they had three assistants. Today, they have six offices with more than 20 staff and colleagues. In recognition of this growth and as a testament to their caring, one-on-one approach to the needs of their clientele, they are now known as Spire Advisors | Assante Capital Management Ltd.

Ian is grateful that he decided to immigrate to Canada in his early 20s with his wife Fionna (who is from Scotland), to explore new opportunities: "Canada has been a blessing for our family. We couldn't think of a better place to live."

When Ian and Fionna are not actively participating in numerous roles within their community, you can find them spending as much time as possible enjoying the many adventures and exploits of their five children, and 13 grandchildren.
